Additional Programs:

Building Blocks: Building blocks is a free 10-30 week program that happens in a families home. They are provided with strategies, games and learning tools to help aid with their child's learning. To register please call Rainbow Literacy and Learning Society.

Literacy and Parenting Skills (LAPS). This is a 6-week group program that explores techniques and topics related to parenting and literacy. Each week focuses on a different parenting topic and teaches games, crafts, books, songs and rhymes that will develop and strengthen a child's literacy skills. There are two options for registering for this program:

- 1) Programming can be offered individually in a family home. Please call Rainbow Literacy and Learning Society for more information and to register.
- 2) Programming can be offered in a small group format.
