

ABOUT Y.E.W.

The Youth Engaging Workplaces (Y.E.W.) Project is a twelve-week program that works with youth aged 16-24 in preparing, applying, and securing inclusive employment in their communities.

ELIGIBILITY

- aged 16-24 and a Canadian Citizen, Permanent Resident, or permitted to work in Canada.
- experiencing a barrier to employment whether it be physical, cognitive, mental, emotional, situational or environmental.
- ready, willing, and able to both participate in the program and to gain employment

BENEFITS

The YEW Project Provides:

- one-to-one coaching and support for youth that covers multiple employment skills
- group and workshop presentations
- volunteer and employment opportunities
- integration with a new, inclusive and diverse social circle

Ready

- looking to enter the job market in the next month
- ready to develop new skills, new habits and build on your self-awareness
- ready to commit to a twelve-week program that may require you to engage in up to three meetings a week with a designated coach

Willing

- willing to find employment in your area
- willing to engage with your coach through text message, email, telephone, and in-person up to three times a week
- willing to try different types of employment within reason
- willing to volunteer
- willing to expand your comfort zone, try new skills and behaviors, and to engage in training that may benefit your job search

Able

- able (physically, mentally, emotionally, etc) to strive towards a common goal of employment
- able to commit to the YEW Project and the requirements of participation
- able to gain employment? (Canadian Citizen/Permanent Resident/etc., Criminal Record, Close proximity to employment options - access to transportation)
- has, or is able to obtain a SIN number

Whether you are interested in learning more about the Youth Engaging Workplaces project, are unsure about any of the outlined criteria, or are ready to sign-up ASAP, contact the Y.E.W. project for more information.

(403) 603-3232

youth@inclusionfoothills.org

© @FoothillsYouthEmployment

www.inclusionfoothills.org

